HUNT BANDIT IN NEW WILMINGTON HOLD-UP

New Wilmington Merchant Shot During Hold-up

Fred Williamson In Hospital Here Suffering From Bullet Wounds

BANDIT ESCAPES AFTER SHOOTING

Williamson Attacked By Bandit While Closing Store, Saturday Night

New Wilmington became a hunting ground for bandits when on Saturday night Fred Williamson, owner of a department store at the corner of Neshannock avenue and Market street, was shot three times by a robber who tried to get the day's receipts. Williamson is in the Jameson Memorial hospital with three bullet holes in him, one in the right arm, one in the right thigh and one through his right chest. Physicians expect him to recover unless infection develops.

The shooting occurred just about ten o'clock when Mr. Williamson was closing up for the night. The only other person in the store at the time, was his mother. As Mr. Williamson was counting the receipts in the cash drawer, a tall man, garbed in a light suit and a cap, and wearing dark glasses walked in and said covering Williamson with a gun said "you'd better hand that over."

There are some people who still, by force of habit, place two cents postage on letters instead of three. It means that Uncle Sam must collect at the other end, if there is no return address indicated.

Work on the improving of the New Castle-New Wilmington road, is progressing nicely. The road from New Wilmington, almost to Wilmington Junction, is reported open for travel, and is said to be an excellent job.

Someone is doing a good piece of civic betterment work on Croton avenue, near the railroad crossing. A couple of old houses that have been rather an eyesore on the street, are being razed. They had long since outlived their usefulness.

A traffic light has been erected on Croton avenue, at the Croton school. It is operated only while school sessions are convening or being dismissed.

ATHENS, Greece, Oct. 10.—"I am innocent of wrongdoing. I have lost everything I have ever owned."

In an exclusive interview with International News Service, Samuel Insull, one-time monarch of a $2,000,000,000 utilities kingdom, thus defended himself today against indictments returned in Chicago charging him with larceny and embezzlement.

Taken Into Custody.

The interview took place in the headquarters of the Athens police, who took the former utilities magnate into custody at the request of the American legation.

Suddenly abandoning his air of secrecy, Insull unbent and told his story in the dingy police station. He described for the first itme his dramatic flight from Paris a few hours after the indictment was returned and insisted he had not yet received any formal notification that he is the subject of criminal prosecution.

Two revolvers and a sawed-off shotgun were found in a suitcase belonging to one of the men, who were being questioned in connection with a recent New Castle, Pa., robbery in which a policeman, Clarence Campbell, was slain.

Arrest of the pair was accomplished after Detective Martin Cooney, who was off duty at the time, saw a parked automobile bearing a license number for which Cleveland police had been asked to watch.

Crowds Flock To Tabernacle

Evangelist Philpott Speaks To Two Great Audiences On Sunday

SERVICE TONIGHT AT GOSPEL TENT

Intensive Effort For City-Wide Results Of Services Under Way

"The Sin That Cannot Be Forgiven" will be the subject of this evening's sermon at the Tabernacle Tent on South Mill street as the fourth week of the great city-wide revival services get under way. The evangelist, Dr. P. W. Philpott, will discuss this solemn and tremendous subject, answering such questions as "Who can commit this sin in this modern day" and "How can it be avoided" in his convincing manner.

This week's meetings will be of an intensive nature.

A spirit of conviction hovered over the vast crowd which more than filled the large tabernacle edifice Sunday evening as many persons turned their thoughts to the finding of the true Christ for the first time and many others again thought of taking up the cross of Christ where they had left it.

A. W. McKee led a stirring song service, with the large chorus choir singing soulfully and spiritedly the old gospel songs, which put the entire audience in a spirit for receiving the message, which touched every heart.

Especially pleasing was the singing of Sam Lewis as his rich voice rang out in "Wonderful Jesus" and the singing of little Harry Jones as

They miss something by not recognizing it, it's a beautiful country, so I am recognizing it in behalf of Huey Long, Jim Ferguson and Bill Murray, the three "American musketeers."

Those three old boys would not recognize anything unless it had had a fight to get in.

I am a "joint" commission going through South America for Hoover and Roosevelt "jointly."

"Jimmy" Walker Is Taking Rest

For First Time In Many Years Walker Has Few Worries On Mind

(International News Service)

NEW YORK, Oct. 10.—Private citizen James J. Walker luxuriated today in the first carefree rest he said he has had in years.

The former mayor was known to have several lucrative offers of jobs one of them from A. C. Blumenthal, theatrical producer.

But Walker, said he would make no decision regarding his future activities until he was completely rested.

When Walker, given a tumultuous welcome by 10,000 persons headed by leaders of Tammy Hall, stepped from the steamer which brought him from abroad, he told newspapermen he stood ready to stump for the Democratic party in the current campaign.

He also emphasized that his cabled declination to be a candidate for re-election to the mayor's office on a "vindication" platform did not mean he was out of politics.

HOOVER TO MAKE ADDRESS SATURDAY

President To Make Trip To Cleveland, Ohio, For Campaign Speech

By GEORGE R. HOLMES
International News Service Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, Oct. 10.—The big guns of Republican oratory will lay down a veritable barrage of oratory this week as the presidential campaign swings into the final month.

President Hoover will make two major speeches, one to the American Bar Association here on Wednesday night, and another in Cleveland on Saturday night.

Coolidge To Speak.

Tomorrow night, in Madison Square Garden, New York, Calvin Coolidge speaks his first word in behalf of the Hoover-Curtis ticket.

Elsewhere, Republican orators of lesser renown will be reinforcing the efforts of the two leaders to swing sentiment behind the president.

Announcement of the Cleveland speech Saturday night was made at the White House this morning, but it failed to carry any information as to Mr. Hoover's plans beyond that date. It was stated that the president probably would make several other speeches, perhaps in New England, New York or New Jersey, in

Homecoming At Savannah

Large Number Of Former Members Return For Day's Program

PASTOR OF FIFTY YEARS AGO GUEST

The first Homecoming Day of the Savannah M. E. church was held on Sunday October 9 in three services, beginning at 10 a. m., 2:30 p. m. and 7:30 p. m. An unusually large number was in attendance at the sessions of the church school with a 186 registered.

At 11 o'clock the pastor, Rev. V. L. Bloomquist preached on the theme, "The Influence of the Familiar." A chorus choir and mixed quartette sang several pleasing numbers.

At 2:30 p. m. one of the most interesting services was conducted when a number of the older members and former members gave recollections concerning the days which are gone by. The Davis Orchestra from Wampum, a piano solo by Guy Davis of Wampum, and a vocal duet, "Will the Circle be Unbroken," by Mrs. Elizabeth Marmon and Dr. C. W. Davis of Mahoningtown, were the musical numbers for the afternoon. Rev. Bloomquist expressed the welcome of the congregation and their appreciation of the response to the invitation given to friends and former members to attend. Mrs. W. H. Weinshenck read several letters and cards from former members living at a distance, among them were greetings from Rev. and Mrs. E. D. Mowry and Mrs. C. C. Smith, former pastors of the church. Warren Helle drew from the records of the first Epworth League organized on the charge several interesting and amusing recollections. Mrs. Sarah Wright gave a very delightful paper recalling the first history of the charge, some of the former pastors, and other interesting events which took place years ago.

Several visiting guests were called upon for brief remarks and Fred Rentz, of New Castle, Miss Elizabeth Reed, Sharon, and Dr. W. A. Womer of New Castle, son of a former pastor, expressed their appreciation to the earlier Methodists who so ener-

Four Injured In Highway Crash

Accident Occurs At Intersection Butler Road And Perry Highway

Four persons were injured, but none seriously, in a head-on collision between an automobile and truck at the intersection of routes 19 and 422 (near Dixie Inn), at 10 a. m. Sunday. All of the injured were treated by a physician at the scene of the crash, caused, it is said, by the auto driver's failure to see a stop sign on route 19.

The injured:

George McLaughlin, 3444 McClure avenue, Pittsburgh; fractured rib.

Mrs. William Barry, 315 Orchard street, Sharon, injuries to neck and back.

T. J. Buckley, 1042 Griswold avenue, Sharon, lacerations of head and face.

Mrs. Abbie Dietzen, 129 South Mercer street, Sharon, laceration of left leg.

The driver of the truck, John McLaughlin, son of George McLaughlin, was not hurt. William Barry, operator of the auto and husband of Mrs. Barry, also escaped injury.

As the weather keeps descending to the zero's chilly line, and the days keep getting chilly, days that once were warm and fine, that's the weather that the coal man looks upon with noisy glee, though today he's not so chipper for its up to seventy three. But the days keep getting closer to the coal man's annual goal, when the folks will need to call him for their winter's jot of coal, and the janitor must shovel if the flat would be kept right, so a fellow wouldn't shiver in the middle of the night. But the coal man is tough bird he can stand all sorts of cold, for he knows it means more orders for his heat producing coal.

CALIFORNIA AND GREECE REPORT QUAKES

Slight Quakes In California

Coast Population Excited As Earth Tremors Occur Along With Rain-storms

ANOTHER SHOCK ON GREEK PENINSULA

(International News Service)

BRAWLEY, Cal., Oct. 10.—A heavy rainstorm continued to rage here and at El Centro today, causing flood-like conditions in the Imperial valley. Irrigation ditches were broken in several places.

An earthquake temblor, the ninth in the last two days, was felt in the valley at 12:45 a. m. today, causing considerable excitement. There was little damage.

Many residents of both cities fled through the rain to buildings of sturdy construction following a heavy earth tremor of 15 seconds' duration yesterday afternoon.

Greek Peninsula Rocked.

LONDON, Oct. 10.—Once again the Greek peninsula of Chalicide was rocked by earth tremors today, according to an Athens Exchange Telegraph dispatch.

Inhabitants still remaining in the region after the widespread destruction of recent quakes were thrown into panic.

The dispatch said residents of Salonika were terror-stricken at the appearance of phospherescent mists over the town.

ensuing weeks, but the plans are indefinite.

Subject Not Given.

The present intention is to have the president return to Washington from Cleveland as soon as his speech is concluded. He probably will leave the capital late Friday night, arriving in Cleveland early in the afternoon, and leave at midnight on the return journey.

There was no information, either, as to Mr. Hoover's subject at Cleveland, but the impression was obtained that it would deal with economic conditions, as did his initial speech of the campaign at Des Moines last week.

Gov. Franklin D. Roosevelt will make his bid for their support in an eight-day tour beginning next week which will carry him as far west as St. Louis.

NEW WILMINGTON MERCHANT SHOT DURING HOLD-UP

Mr. Williamson swung at the bandit with the crank of the cash register. As he did so the bandit fired three times, every shot hitting Williamson.

Without waiting to get the money in the drawer the bandit fled out the door with Williamson, semi-unconscious following him. Just outside the door, Dale Gilliland was standing, and as the bandit jumped into a Ford coupe, Williamson asked Gilliland to follow him and get the automobile tag number.

Gilliland followed the car down Neshannock avenue and on out towards Fayette where his car went bad. Tom Palmer came along with a car loaded with feed and at Gilliland's request took up the chase but the loaded car was no match for the speedier car of the bandit and he escaped in the direction of Volant.

Officers Notified.

Telephone calls to adjacent towns brought out a score of officers. From New Castle came County Detective Lee and Assistant Rocks, several policemen and private officers. From Mercer were County Detective Leyshock and State Policeman Black and the constables in the various townships north of New Castle took up the search.

It is thought that the job was done by an amateur bandit who lives either in Lawrence or Mercer counties. This is the fourth time the Williamson store has been robbed in the past three years and the fact that the former robberies had been committed, was why Williamson tried to grapple with the bandit.

Officers believe they have some clues as to who the robber might be and a hunt has been in progress since Saturday night. It is thought that one wrist may be bruised from where Williamson hit him and this may be the means of tracing him.

Immediately after the shooting Mr. Williamson was rushed to the Jameson Memorial hospital where for a time it was feared he might die. Today he showed some signs of improvement.

In spite of other attractions, golf does not seem to be losing any of its appeal, the beautiful weather of Saturday and Sunday drawing large crowds to local links. The Muny course in particular had many enthusiasts out on Saturday and Sunday.

Pa Newc observed an auto bus passing through the city Saturday, which had license plates from three states attached.

getically and devoutly sought the upbuilding of the community in their younger days.

One of the most delightful events of the service was the presence of Rev. F. R. Peters, now of Sewickley, Pa., who was pastor of Croton, Greenwood and Savannah in 1882. He told of his being appointed to this charge fifty years ago and spoke feelingly of the members then active in the church.

The evening service continued the fine spirit of the day with a group of choruses sung by the Children's Chorus under the direction of Mrs. S. Tanner, and instrumental numbers by the Misses Mariae, Margaret and Sarah Tanner, a duet and chorus number by Mr. and Mrs. George Body and the choir and a male quartette consisting of Harold Klingensmith, Charles Wright, V. L. Bloomquist and Ralph Swisher. Rev. Peters led in prayer and Dr. C. G. Farr preached in customary excellent fashion on the greatness of the love of God manifested in life.

Several hundred people were in attendance at the various services, with the afternoon gathering taxing the capacity of the church building. A number brought their lunch and stayed from the morning to the afternoon hour.

Particular mention should be made of the beautiful bank of plants and blossoms arranged by W. H. Weinshenck, and the floral baskets brought by thoughful members of the congregation. Various committees with careful planning and supervision made the visit of old friends and members one to be cherished by them in memory in years to come and making them eager for the day next year which shall see a repetition of this delightful custom.

Morning Program

The morning program, held in the college chapel at 10:50, was presided over by Dean Charles Freeman. Organ music by Professor Gordon Balch Nevin of the Conservatory, announcements of the day's program, and two addresses comprised this program.

The invocation was made by the Rev. Dr. J. Ralph Neale, pastor of the New Wilmington United Presbyterian church. Dr. Weir C. Ketler, president of Grove City College, spoke on "Some Problems of the Liberal Arts College." Dr. Thomas Stockham Baker, president of Carnegie Institute of Technology, spoke on "Coordinating the Work of the Liberal Arts College with that of the Technical School."

Inauguration Service

The academic procession, consisting of the college faculty, board of trustees, academic representatives of other colleges and universities, and the speakers, formed in Old Main Memorial at 1:30. The procession moved to Market street, thence up the campus walk to the South terrace. Music for the procession was furnished by the Westminster student band under the direction of Professor Donald Cameron.

The Rev. Dr. E. C. McCown, Pittsburgh, offered the invocation at 2 o'clock, and Dr. H. H. Donaldson, Pittsburgh, president of the board of trustees, presided.

Words of welcome to the new president were given by Gordon Nevin, Monongahela, representing the students; by Dean Charles Freeman, representing the faculty; by Ex-Governor John S. Fisher, representing the board of trustees; and by Reid Kennedy, Pittsburgh, representinng the alumni.

Professor E. H. Freeman gave a piano solo. Dr. J. A. Swindler, registrar, presented Professor J. A. Shott, member of the Westminster faculty for 30 years, for the honorary degree of doctor of pedagogy. Dr. Galbreath conferred the degree, with Dean Freeman and Dr. Swindler presenting the hood.

Greetings Extended

Greetings to Westminster from sister colleges and universities were brought by Dr. William Oxley Thompson, president emeritus of Ohio State University.

Miss Margaret Reed, member of the faculty, sang a solo, "He That Dwelleth". Miss C. Dorothy Kirkbride was the accompanist.

Dr. Hugh Thompson Kerr, pastor of the Shadyside Presbyterian church, Pittsburgh, gave the address of the afternoon on "Religion in Education."

The girls' chorus, directed by Miss Florence Mae Thomas, New Castle, sang "All Praise to God" and "Jesus, Friend of Sinners".

Inaugural Ceremony

Dr. H. H. Donaldson, president of the board, then reviewed the career of Dr. Galbreath, presented the official appointment to him as president, and promised him the support of the board in his administration.

Dr. Galbreath made his inaugural address following this ceremony. Following this, the audience sang the Westminster Hymn, Dr. Galbreath pronounced the benediction, and the recessional march, with music by the college band, began. The recession moved to Market street, thence to the West entrance of Old Main Memorial.

Large Crowd

Approximately 75 delegates, representing 60 colleges and universities from Utah to Maine, and from Maryland to Kansas, were present. More than 1,200 alumni and former students were on hand. Seats for 2,500 were provided on the South campus, and there were many standing.

At four o'clock, before the ceremonies were completely over, the Westminster-California State football game was started at the football field. Many of those who attended the afternoon service came to the game as the second quarter was under way.

In the evening, an all-college dance was held in the gymnasium. Professor and Mrs. Ben Euwema were chaperons of the party attended by students and alumni.

The bonus raid seems a dreadful thing to nice men who sold the Government $10 articles at $640 during the war.

Parents Who's Who average two and one-tenths children, which probably means two ordinary kids and one crooner.

The suspicion grows that we did a little too much for posterity when we did its spending.

Returning Songster

Formerly a musical comedy star, Grace Fisher of Buffalo, N. Y., now a recognized opera diva, is shown as she arrived in New York on the new Italian liner Rex, after four years of singing throughout European capitals. Miss Fisher plans a return to Europe on completion of a tour in the United States.

Resting Statesman

Seeking a rest from his political labors, the Marquis of Reading, Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs of Great Britain, is shown with his wife as they arrived in New York on the S. S. Aquitania. The Marchioness was formerly her husband's secretary.

Killed in Holdup

Not content with being the star athlete of his school, Charles Marino (above) 16-year-old high school student of Chelsea Mass., wanted to be a hold-up man. As a result, he is dead. Marino was shot by a policeman when he attempted to hold up a store in Medford, Mass., with four other boys.

FORMER CHICAGO UTILITIES HEAD HELD IN ATHENS

Securities of Chicago went into bankruptcy.

Is Very Nervous.

"Their liabilities were about $250,000,000, while their actual losses were in the neighborhood of $100,000,000.

"I attribute these bankruptcies to the general world crisis.

"I, my wife and son have lost all our property. We have nothing left but my pension of $18,000 a year."

Throughout the interview, Insull betrayed a nervousness that he tried in vain to hide. The diminutive, white-haired capitalist bit his fingernails and folded and unfolded a copy of an American language Paris newspaper which told of his flight from Paris.

Double Wedding Impressive Event Of Saturday Evening

Of extreme interest, was the double wedding which took place Saturday evening in the First Pentecostal church, Pearson street, when Miss Rose Weber, the daughter of Mrs. Rose Weber of Euclid avenue became the bride of Walter Bender, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Bender of Harbor street and the latter's sister, Miss Clara Bender was united in holy wedlock to the Rev. Norman R. Spong, of Erie, Pa.

The ceremony was performed at 7 o'clock before an assemblage of relatives and friends numbering six hundred and in a setting of decorative beauty into which the rarest of the seasons flowers entered. The entire chancel was a bed of dahlias, snapdragons, cosmas and other blooms, perfectly arranged, and outlined by graceful palms.

To this lovely picture, music contributed its charm, Mrs. Elsie Strechler of Rochester, Pa., pianist, rendering soft strains of appropriate selections and just preceding the entrance of the bridal party, Miss Sadie Lewis sang "I Love You Truly" with piano accompaniment.

To the swelling chords of the Mendelssohn wedding march, the Rev. Irving Meyer, of Asbury Park, New Jersey, and pastor of the Full Gospel church, the Rev. John Kellner, pastor of the local church, and the Rev. Gordon R. Bender, brother of Walter and Clara Bender, and a missionary to Japan who is here on a year's furlough, took their respective places before the altar, where they read the nuptials.

Miss Weber entered from the rear of the auditorium on the arm of her uncle, Michael Weber, who gave her away. She was charming in a gown of white crepe de chene made with long sleeves, ankle length skirt and fitted bodice and wore a veil of tulle cap shape, caught with clusters of orange blossoms on either side. She carried an arm bouquet of white roses and valley lillies tied with white streamers. Mrs. Gus Joseph, of Dayton, O., her attendant, was attired in a frock of blue crepe with short sleeves with jacket effect, and her flowers were made up of pink roses intermingled with valley lillies.

Rev. Ralph Bender, Waynesboro Calvery Tabernacle, brother of the groom served as best man, and the Rev. Gordon R. Bender, officiated with the ring service.

Miss Bender who also proceeded to the altar from the rear of the church, presented a stunning picture in her gown of white crepe made identically the same, wore a veil of tulle, cap shape with clusters of orange blossoms on either side, and accessories to match. Her father, William Bender, gave her away in marriage, and she chose as her attendant, Miss Dorothy Spong, sister of the groom. She wore a gown of blue crepe, with long skirt, short puff sleeves with jacket effect, and carried an arm cluster of pink roses.

Harold Spong, of Erie, served his brother as best man and the single ring service was used with the Rev. Meyer, brother-in-law to the bride, officiating. The Rev. John Kellner took part in both ceremonies.

The guests were escourted to their seats by the Messrs Roy Kirkwood, C. Larson, Herman Clark, John Caldwell and Harold Barth, as ushers.

Following, a reception was held at the Bender residence on Harbor street.

Mr. and Mrs. Bender, the latter who attended New Castle Senior school and Business College, was employed in the business office of the Interstate Creamery and the former is associated in the carpenter business with his father, left later in the evening on a wedding trip to Toledo, O., Dayton, O., and Waynesboro. The bride chose for her traveling costume, a jacket suit of blue crepe with accessories to match. Upon their return they will reside on Euclid avenue, this city.

Rev. and Mrs. Spong departed for Niagara Falls, Buffalo, N. Y., and other places of interest. The bride selected a blue crepe ensemble, and accessories to match for traveling. Mrs. Spong attended the local Senior high school and also Business College, and is associated with the interstate Creamery office here. The groom is pastor of the Erie Penticostal church. They will take up their residence in Erie.

Guests were present from Buffala, N. Y., Chicago, Ill., Dayton, O., Beaver Falls, Midland, East Liverpool, O., Youngstown O., Niagara Falls, Canton, O., and New Castle.

Both couples have gained popularity among the younger set here with whom they have mingled, and they have received a large collection of lovely gifts in esteem of the affection they are held by their hosts of friends.

A CLEAR COMPLEXION

Ruddy cheeks—sparkling eyes—most women can have. Dr. F. M. Edwards for 20 years treated scores of women for liver and bowel ailments. During these years he gave his patients a substitute for calomel made of a few well-known vegetable ingredients, naming them Dr. Edwards Olive Tablets. Know them by their olive color.

These tablets are wonder-workers on the liver and bowels, causing a normal action, carrying off the waste and poisonous matter in one's system.

If you have a pale face, sallow look, dull eyes, pimples, coated tongue, headaches, a listless, no-good feeling, all out of sorts, inactive bowels, take one of Dr. Edwards Olive Tablets nightly for a time and note the pleasing results.

Thousands of women and men take Dr. Edwards Olive Tablets—now and then to keep fit. 15c, 30c and 60c.

PREDICTIONS of the outcome of heated political campaigns are usually—well, just predictions. They are unsafe. Especially is this true of the present contest. It is undeniable that uncertainty prevails; that it will continue to prevail right up to election day, which is fixed for four weeks from Tuesday. During these four weeks more serious thought will be given to the candidates of Hoover and Roosevelt by citizens who are anxious about the future. And serious thought should convince of the unwisdom of making a change at the white house.

Until President Hoover delivered his remarkable address at Des Moines, in the heart of the mid-West agricultural states, last Tuesday night, Governor Roosevelt had been having things pretty much his own way in the speech-making line. Since his acceptance speech back on August 11 the president has taken no active part in the campaign. He had remained in Washington attending to business. Naturally the eyes of the country followed the tour of the Democratic candidate.

Citizens read that his meetings had been largely attended; that people flocked to see him. Naturally the Democratic policy was to insist that such outpourings could mean nothing else than victory. But the presence of mere crowds is not necessarily significant. No candidate for president ever drew such audiences or did William J. Bryan in three campaigns, yet he never won an election. The progress of Alfred E. Smith through the states four years ago was attended by marvelous gatherings, but all the world knows what happened upon election day. Thousands not of his party faith go to look on when a presidential candidate appears in their midst. They go to see as well as to hear. They are curious. So the fact that Governor Roosevelt has talked to large audiences can not be accepted as an assurance that ballots will be cast accordingly. All reports show that the enthusiasm with which President Hoover was received in his brief invasion of Iowa could harly have been surpassed. If Roosevelt has had his crowds, so has President Hoover, and the president's were tremendous. But crowds do not carry elections. Ballots do.

OHIO TRIMS SALARIES

Legislative history was made in Ohio when the state legislature in a five-day special session lopped $1,725,000 from state salaries, $200,000 from county salaries and effected other economies. Compared with the compromising and dilly-dallying of some legislative bodies, this was an amazing achievement.

It is deserving of more than passing mention when the legislative and executive branches of government cooperate in submitting the budget to a violent shrinking process, but it is even more remarkable when the two legislative branches are of opposite political faith from the governor and the executive economy program has been branded as partisan trickery.

What further proof than this do the politicians want that the voters will stand back of them if they slash government costs to the bone? Taxpayers are no longer thinking of anybody but themselves. Jobholders cut off from the public trough by economy are getting mighty little sympathy from individuals and business impoverished by government waste and high taxes.

The public demand for economy has a punch behind it which it is bad politics to ignore. There is not a political boss in the country who can safely defy this cry for government retrenchment and tax reduction.

LET THE GOOD WAVE GO ON

In the campaign to cut down the cost of government printing, 125 bulletins that hitherto could be had for the asking have been taken off the free list. From now on, the citizen who wants government instructions on how to build a cat trap will have to pay five cents for the mail order lesson. Other bulletins, including the famous one on the love life of the bullfrog, have been taken out of print altogether.

Now let the economy wave hit those other croakers, the members of both houses of congress who have their long-winded speeches printed at public expense and circulated as campaign documents under the congressional frank. Cat traps may have their uses, but most congressional oratory is just a total loss.—The San Francisco Chronicle.

SEABURY

Samuel Seabury is still awaiting recognition from his home city and state for his distinguished service to both in the manner in which he successfully prosecuted the Tammany investigation and he will have to wait a long time before Tammany-ridden New York City will reward him. But his great service has not gone unhonored and unsung.

The National Municipal League, formed to promote economy and good government in the cities of the United States, paid him the greatest tribute within its power when it made him an honorary vice-president.

During the probe into corruption in the magistrates' courts and the graft pervading the entire municipal administration of New York, Judge Seabury's motives were maligned, his zeal for a clean-up charged to selfish political ambition. The public seemed apathetic when it was not jeering the inquisitor and acclaiming former Mayor Walker.

Popular recognition for his public service will come to Judge Seabury in time. Thankful for the economies being effected by Mayor McKee, the taxpayers of New York City will not be oblivious to the essential part played by Seabury in making them possible. When and if a tax comes to them, they will hail this man, who refused to accept graft as normal, invincible and inevitable in municipal administration, as a conquering hero and a public benefactor. Already they are a little bit ashamed of their past treatment of the man.

A Friend of Mine Is Gone
He Liked People
So People Liked Him

By MARSHALL MASLIN

I'D LIKE TO write something about a friend of mine, who is dead.

You didn't know him, but he was around a lot and if you knew him you liked him. If you didn't you missed something well worthwhile—his friendship.

Because Eddie had a great gift for liking people. He was a "newspaper man."

We'd come to Eddie, growling and damning something somebody did, and hoping he'd add a little fuel to our wrath. But it never worked that way. . . . He cooled us off. We never stirred up any answering wrath in him. He wasn't that kind. He didn't preach or pass us out any wise saws about human beings. But somewhere in the conversation he'd drop some remark or tell us some story that made us see the fellow we were mad at in a different light. That was Eddie, always.

You might have thought that Eddie wasn't very discriminating in his friendship because he knew and liked so many people—judges, policemen, politicians, business men, lawyers, playboys, rich men, poor men, grownups and children. So you might have been excused for thinking he wasn't very choosy in his friendships.

But that's where you were wrong. He WAS a connoisseur of friendship. He could see just that much further into a man than you and find the something that was worth liking. See it instantly and remember it forever and talk about it. Just naturally.

I'm writing this now in the center of the shock of knowing he is dead. He died so suddenly and gave us no warning. We thought he was well and he never told us he wasn't. He wouldn't have. If you asked him how he was he'd smile and say he was fine. Always. And then swiftly, the other night, he died. It was his heart. A good, a courteous way to die, but not so good for those who will see him no more.

You see, there's not one of us that didn't know Eddie liked us. He knew the part of us that was worth liking. He could see beyond the thick skin of our restlessness, our peevishness, our fussing and fuming and worrying about little things that don't count at all when you stacked them against the fun of living.

He liked us and he's gone and we feel sort of lonely at the suddenness of it. But we remember the cheerful grin that Eddie used so generously and it makes us feel better. It's good to have known a man who was so fond of other human beings and such a good friend to life.

And I write about him here because my friend was the sort of man that most of us would like to be.

COURTEOUS TREATMENT

It may be necessary for a person of culture and refinement to occupy a monial position as your hireling.

Adverse circumstances over which this person has no control have been responsible for his or her condition.

No special favors are asked of you by this person.

But courteous treatment is expected.

That your orders are to be as strictly carried out none realizes more fully than this particular employe, who tries to qualify in every way.

But you are overbearing and demanding in your conduct.

Do you know that to exhibit such a manner only denotes your lack of early training and environment, it does not show a cultural advantage and breeding.

If there is anything in your heart but sympathy for one who has met with serious financial reverses your spirit is wrong and you are not entitled to the position you occupy.

It is those who have given commands who are most anxious to carry out requirements when they must take orders.

But to be in the employment of a brow-beating person is added humiliation to the person who is in hard luck.

OLD GRAY-BEARD ANNUALS

The middle-aged perennials with all their labor done
Are gossiping like women in the warm October sun.
I think I hear them saying: Grandpa Zinnia's very low
And the frost will surely take him in another day or so."

I walk about the garden in the early morning haze
To see the gray-beard annuals whose years are told in days.
Their youth is of the springtime and their prime is of July
But now it is October and they're old and soon to die.

The annuals late in autumn seem like people late in life,
All scarred and bruised by struggle and completely used by strife.
And, like the neighboring women when an old man's pulse runs low,
I think I hear the larkspurs say: "It's sad to watch them go!"

TEN COMMANDMENTS TO BE USED IN BUSINESS

I. Thou shalt not wait for something to turn up, but thou shalt pull off thy coat and go to work, that thou mayest prosper in thy affairs and make the word "failure" spell "success."

II. Thou shalt not be content to go about thy business looking like a loafer, for thou shouldst know that thy personal appearance is better than a letter of recommendation.

III. Thou shouldst not wait to be told what thou shalt do, nor in what manner thou shalt do it, for thus will thy days be long on the job which fortune shall give thee.

IV. Thou shalt not try to make excuses, nor shalt thou say to those that chide thee, "I did not think."

V. Thou shalt not fail to maintain thine own integrity, nor shalt thou be guilty of anything that will lessen thy good report on thyself.

VI. Thou shalt not covet the other fellow's job, nor his salary, nor the position that he hath gained by his own hard labor.

VII. Thou shalt not fail to live within thine income, nor shalt thou contract any debts when thou canst not see thy way clear to pay them.

VIII. Thou shalt not be afraid to blow thine own horn, for he who faileth to blow his own horn at the proper time findeth no one standing ready to blow it for him.

IX. Thou shalt not hesitate to say "No" when thou meanest "No", nor shalt thou fail to remember that there are times when it is unsafe to bind thyself by hasty judgment.

X. Thou shalt give every man a square deal. This is the last and greatest commandment, and there is no other like unto it. Upon this one commandment hang all the laws and the profits of the business world.

Crisp On Tariff Commission Indorsed By Whole Country

Georgian's Expert Knowledge Recognized And Satisfaction Expressed That He Will Continue To Serve Country In Public Office

Almost unprecedented indorsement is given by the country to the selection of Charles R. Crisp of Georgia as member of the federal tariff commission. He was named by President Hoover for the post made vacant by the death of Lincoln Dixon of Indiana. Public opinion indicates confidence in his expert knowledge of tariff matters, and satisfaction is expressed that he will continue in public life, after his defeat in the senatorial primary.

"It was a happy move by President Hoover to preserve to the nation the ability and statesmanship of one of the most capable men in the public service," declares the MEMPHIS COMMERCIAL APPEAL. The FORT WORTH STAR-TELEGRAM feels that "his availability for the post constitutes a piece of luck from the national standpoint," a view held also by the PORT HURON TIMES HERALD. The YOUNGSTOWN VINDICATOR holds that the appointment "will keep in public life a man whom it would be difficult to replace." The CHARLOTTE (N. C.) OBSERVER says that "aside from being a very graceful act by a Republican President, recompense came to a distinguished son of Georgia who is worthy the honor conferred on him."

"Mr. Crisp, in his long service in the House," according to the WASHINGTON EVENING STAR, "had become recognized, as his father, Speaker Crisp, was before him, as one of the outstanding members of Congress, a credit to Georgia and a fine type of statesman." The Evening Star remarks that "the country will continue to receive the benefits of the work of a distinguished public servant." His fitness is attested by the SPRINGFIELD (MASS.) UNION, and the ROCHESTER TIMES-UNION offers the judgment: "There are probably few men in the country better fitted to fill this place with distinction than Charles R. Crisp. During the recent session of Congress he was a hard worker for sound legislation."

"The President is to be congratulated upon the truly sagacious choice he has made, and so is the country," states the ATLANTA JOURNAL, and that paper voices the tribute: "During his 20 years in Congress Representative Crisp, as a member of the ways and means committee, has been an assiduous student of the tariff in all its bearings. He knows it as a means of revenue, as an instrument of protection and as a factor in foreign relations. He understands just how it is made and just how it operates, both in its rightful purposes and its wrongful effects. He has seen Democratic tariffs and Republican tariffs, tariffs honestly designed to equalize production costs at home and abroad in the interest of American labor, and tariffs perverted to the enrichment of a privileged few and to the injury of the rank and file. He can grasp in complete detail the problems of this nature which, to the average citizen and indeed to not a few members of Congress itself, are a baffling mass of confusions. And he has withal the insight and the steadiness of a judicial mind to interpret their significance."

Asserting that the President "could hardly have done better had he searched the whole field, than in the appointment of Mr. Crisp," the ROANOKE WORLD-NEWS gives the appraisal: "In the present presidential campaign the Democratic party has no more difficult hurdle than the bolt of a majority of the Democrats in the House when they deserted the leadership of Mr. Crisp, acting chairman of the ways and means committee, to go off after Mr. LaGuardia, independent Republican of New York, in defeat of an orderly tax program. The fact that the hodge-podge schedules adopted, which are doing so much to hamper business recovery, are not producing anything like the revenue expected, may lead a chastened House at the short session this winter to return to the more orderly program of taxation of Mr. Crisp ably advocated on the floor of the House."

"The genuineness of Mr. Crisp's Democracy cannot be questioned," says the PHILADELPHIA EVENING BULLETIN, and that paper also reviews the legislation with which he has been associated: "He is favorably known to the country at large from the quality of his service in the House. He made a particularly good impression by his handling of revenue legislation at the recent session of Congress as acting chairman of the ways and means committee when he ably defended the tax bill draft, including provision for a sales tax adopted by the majority of the committee, but rejected by the House through a combination of Democrats with a Republican minority. Mr. Crisp stuck to his guns and, although beaten, made a most creditable fight."

"The South has no more distinguished and loyal public servant than the new member of the tariff commission," declares the HOUSTON CHRONICLE. A similar view is held by the CHARLESTON (S. C.) EVENING POST, with the suggestion that "the tariff has once more become one of the paramount issues, not merely in American poli-

The World AND THE Mud Puddles

JUST MILLING AROUND

The embattled farmers are busy again, with Sioux City their Lexington of a modern war. They hope the metaphorical shots they are firing will be heard round a roused and converted agricultural world.

So far, happily, there has been no shooting, even though the language of wartime is profusely employed across the prairies, with patrols, pickets and blockade runners conspicuously mentioned in the dispatches from the front. It is a war of prices, depending on the movement of supplies.

So far, also, there has been no yielding to the temptation to call out the National Guard in Iowa. The perplexed peace officers of the counties must still struggle with the task of making it effectively clear to their mobilized farmer neighbors that the public roads are open thoroughfares, not to be wilfully closed. But such exhortation has seemed in vain, with trucks carrying milk and other produce barred, and much milk poured into ditches.

This lively dispute appears to be a local phase of a broader battle, reaching into terms of livestock and wheat. The farmers around Sioux City would appear to be quite too combative, especially in property destruction or denial of rights. But this is probably only an episode in the larger campaign.

"Strike" or "holiday" movement, with a slogan of a dollar a bushel for wheat, is reported to have swept through several western states. Perhaps it may eventually have a real educative influence,—teaching self-help means more than paternalism; also, that mere "holding" only defers the day; finally, that cutting down supply at the source is the one way to affect demand.

Bible Thought For Today

A VERY NEEDFUL PRAYER:—Show me thy ways, O Lord: teach me thy paths. Let integrity and uprightness preserve me: for I wait on thee.—Psalm 25:4, 21.

If People Only Realized Burden Of Expenditures Taxes Would Fall, Says Byrd

By Rear Admiral Richard E. Byrd

While the bulk of our people silently bend their backs to their jobs, splendidly organized blocs and minorities by their unified power force their selfish will upon our local, state and federal lawmakers.

Appropriations for specially privileged minorities saturate our whole governmental system. The great majority, then, pay without voice taxes that are imposed by small groups and privileged sections. It is the minorities who have representation.

The laws which permit such a state of affairs have crept in until national taxation has reached something like $15,000,000,000 annually, equal to the earnings of all the people for three months each year.

Should our citizens realize this startling fact, there would then be no necessity for any economic organization. The great pity is that it takes insult and upheavals to awaken the people from their dangerous lethargy. This indifference is bringing our cherished democracy itself up for trial. This government, controlled by minorities, will soon take charge of the people unless the people take charge of the government.

Suffering and destruction lie at the end of the road the country is traveling.

It is high taxation, not wars, that has brought disaster to nations. Our republic has reached the crossroads. As it does so there looms the important truth, namely, the dependence of one group of citizens upon another.

Our civilization is so interdependent that no part can suffer without affecting the whole.

Dangerous taxation, therefore, affects every group and every class. The poor are even more disastrously affected than the well-to-do. Though the poor man may pay no taxes directly, he pays up to the hilt in all he buys and in his rents and loss of jobs.

A new Declaration of Independence is needed to break the servitude of the organized minorities and the answer can be found only in an organized majority.

It is only within such a non-self-seeking organization that labor, agriculture and business could combine to go into unselfish action together.

Unless we act effectively, we will pass on to our children, as a heritage of indifference, a national debt and tax burden that will seriously handicap them in their pursuit of happiness and freedom. The future for our children is what we make it. There is a deeper responsibility to the future than to the present.

Westminster Given Praise By Educators At Inaugural Event

(Special To The News)

NEW WILMINGTON, Pa., Oct. 10.—Lauding the liberal arts college as the training place of world leadership, all speakers at both the morning and the afternoon services of the inauguration of Dr. Robert F. Galbreath as president of Westminster college, held up Westminster as a typical institution.

Speaking on the subject, "Some Problems of the Liberal Arts College", Dr. Weir C. Ketler, president of Grove City college, said at the morning service in the chapel:

"The permanence of many institutions depends on two principles: It must serve as a human need; and it must serve and have within it the power of changing present conditions for the good."

Tracing the growth of the liberal arts college, Dr. Ketler said:

"An American residence college is the outgrowth of the English system. A man by the name of Merton was the founder of the college. He spent 12 years in developing this institution. The students were not required to stay in school a certain length of time. They could leave whenever they chose."

"Many old colleges, which received inspiration from this early English background, have come through difficult periods: Revolutionary war, Civil war, panics, depressions, and other difficulties. It is true that many colleges were established on inadequate foundations. In the future, the process of merging may be continued to some extent. Colleges will continue to fulfill the need for higher education for the future generations of America. The college is a social institution which bridges the gap between high school and industry."

Speaking of Westminster in particular, Dr. Ketler said:

"Westminster is a typical residence college. For more than 75 years it has rendered an important service to state and nation. It is stronger and better prepared to serve the public than ever before. I hope that 100 years from now when an unborn generation may read the records, it will find a record of circumstances and progress of unsurpassed usefulness."

Dr. Baker's Talk

Dr. Thomas Stockham Baker, president of Carnegie Institute of Technology, spoke at the morning service on "Coordinating the Work of the Liberal Arts College with that of the Technical School."

Dr. Baker said, in opening:

"I congratulate Westminster on its honorable and fruitful history; on the prospects of a deeper usefulness under the guidance of President Galbreath."

Speaking of reciprocation between various types of institutions, Dr. Baker said:

"We may have to contract rather than enlarge the scope of our institutions. No institution can make its endowment cover the whole field of knowledge. We must regard presidents not only as directors of our own institutions, but also as trustees of a greater American system of education which is responsible for the creation of a higher form of patriotism."

Fisher Talks For Board.

Ex-Governor John S. Fisher, a member of the board of trustees at Westminster, represented the board at the afternoon inaugural ceremonies. Speaking on behalf of the board, Ex-Governor Fisher said:

"I will say to you today, in the presence of Dr. Galbreath, that when his name was presented to the board of trustees, not one dissenting vote was cast. We called him to the presidency, knowing at the time that he was being placed in a position that was peculiarly trying at the time."

"Dr. Galbreath is still a young man. Thus, we believe that the college will be served by a long period of consecration on his part. A man distinguished in the pulpit of the church; a man noted for scholastic attainments; a man noted for his public experience. We know (to Dr. Galbreath) of the ease with which you mingle with people and the touch you place on the young people."

Representing sister colleges and universities. Dr. William Oxley Thompson, president emeritus of Ohio State University, spoke on "The Future of Higher Education".

Galbreath Speech.

After he was presented by Dr. H. Donaldson, president of the board of trustees, Dr. Robert F. Galbreath responded with his inaugural address.

Speaking of the gathering itself, Dr. Galbreath said:

"This event has, as you know, great importance, too; for it is made so largely by the presence of the honorable delegates from our sister institutions, the alumni, neighbors and friends whose presence testify to their interest and good will. Nor do we forget a loyal faculty, a board of trustees who give liberally, a student body who is proving itself delightfully."

"This college reflects the dreams of the men who held the position of president in the institution: Dr. Robert Gracey Ferguson, great man of God; Dr. Russell, putting a fine life into the task; Dr. Wallace, dreaming his dreams."

"We shall build on the foundations which these others have laid. We interpret the purpose of the college as a great service bureau. Our task is to help young men and women find a true aim in life. There must be growth, and growth means change. By patience and consecration and graciously following through we shall perform our task."

Dr. Kerr's Talk.

Dr. Hugh Thompson Kerr, pastor of the Shadyside Presbyterian subject, "The Urgency of Christian Education."

"The task of each generation is to transmit the values which it has cherished to the coming generation. True values must be conserved and transferred from father to child, from teacher to scholar, from prophet to people," he said in opening.

"This transfer of values," Dr. Kerr continued, "has always been difficult. The death of nations and institutions testify to this fact. Fine things have been lost because of callous indifference."

"There is no doubt, however, that we are passing through one of those periods in history when old values are being tested in the fire and when the younger generation has taken upon itself to prove all things for itself. The door into the new world has been opened in our day."

"Those who mourn over what they call the moral flabbiness of the rising generation claim to find justification for their indictment in apparent secular tendencies in modern education. The gap between the old faith and the enew knewledge, they say, is largely the result of the influence of modern secular education."

"Against the secularization of education, the Christian college lifts up its standard and enters upon a crusade for Christ and the church. It has been a long and difficult crusade, and at times there are those who think it has been a losing crusade."

"In the task of bridge-building between the past and the present, the going and the coming, we do not build alone. We build with the most competent, the emost seriously-minded, the most Christian generation the world has ever known."

Pile Sufferers

Your itching, bleeding, or protruding piles will go and not come back when you actually remove the cause—bad blood circulation in the lower bowel—and not one minute before. Salves or suppositories can't do this—as internal remedy must be used. HEM-ROID, prescription of Dr. J. S. Leonhardt, succeeds because it stimulates the circulation, drives out the thick impure blood, heals and restores the almost dead parts. HEM-ROID has such a wonderful record of success in even the most stubborn cases that, Eckerd's Cut Rate and New Castle Drug Co., and druggists everywhere urge every sufferer to get a bottle of HEM-ROID Tablets today. They must end your pile agony or money back.

tics, but in world politics." The SCHENECTADY GAZETTE records that Mr. Crisp is "looked upon by political friend and foe alike as possessed of unusual ability."

"His qualities," according to the SAN JOSE MERCURY HERALD, "have won the respect and confidence of Congress and of the public," and that paper comments: "It is the purpose of President Hoover to take the tariff commission out of politics by appointing members who will take the position that their duties are judicial, and not permit their political views on protection and free trade to influence their decisions. He has succeeded thus far. While the commission is bi-partisan, the members have never divided on party lines. Decisions have been unanimous. The reputation of Representative Crisp for sincerity and devotion to public duty give assurance that he will act as a conscientious judge and not as a partisan. If the high standard established is maintained and the commission is continued, the time will soon come when the tariff will be taken out of politics, for duties will be fixed on a scientific basis."

Catholic Daughters Have Rally Sunday

Out Of Town Dignitaries Speak In St. Mary's Hall At Court Theresa Irene Meet

Court Theresa Irene 231 of the Catholic Daughters of America had a splendid rally meeting Sunday afternoon in St. Mary's hall, North Beaver street, with many out of town officers and members present.

Mrs. Evelyn Woods, grand regent of the local court, presided and the rally opened with the singing of "America" by the group, after which Rev. Fr. A. P. Scholz, chaplain of the court, gave the invocation and the group pledged their allegiance to the flag.

Mrs. Woods then introduced the visiting dignitaries, who were Miss Frances Maher of Kane, state regent; Mrs. Della Crawford of Midland, district deputy; Miss Mary McShane, Butler, deputy from that district; grand regents Mesdames Gertrude Smith of Butler, Boyle of Rochester, Haney of Aliquippa, Dillon of Midland, Miss Ruscille of Ellwood City and Mrs. Miller, past grand regent of Ellwood City. Past grand regents of the local court, Mrs. Anna Duff, Claire Duff, Mrs. Margaret Kelly and Mrs. Ida Suber, were also given recognition. Mrs. Genevieve Schaaf of Court Consuelo, Pittsburgh, and Mrs. Loretta Kerney of Butler were also among the out of town guests.

Rev. Fr. Scholz and Rev. Fr. Watterson greeted the members and gave short addresses; Betty McClelland pleased with a vocal solo; Rev. Fr. J. A. Doerr addressed the group and Mrs. Margaret Burns sang.

Mrs. Della Crawford then spoke to the women about her part of the work; little Phyllis Mangiero entertained with a dance number; Miss Maher then addressed the group and complimented them on the splendid work done the past year. The Ellwood City group gave a humorous sketch, which was most entertaining and Mrs. Genevieve Schaaf of Pittsburgh spoke briefly. After this the past regents each spoke briefly.

At the close of the splendid program Mrs. Evelyn Woods thanked each and every one for the part taken in making the rally the successful meeting it was.

Refreshments brought the afternoon to a close and Mrs. Woods was most efficiently aided by Mrs. Frances Coalo, Mrs. May Donegan, Mrs. Mary Brown, Mrs. Margaret Kelly, Mrs. Anna Seger, Mrs. Magaret Micaletti, Mrs. Jennie Vallely and Cecelia Daugherty.

TREAT A COLD IN THE FIRST STAGE

—and You Nip It in the Bud!

A cold ordinarily progresses through three stages: The Dry Stage, the first 24 hours; the Watery Secretion Stage, 1 to 3 days; the Mucous Secretion Stage. Relief in the first stage is far easier than in the later stages. In fact, it is taking chances to let a cold run beyond 24 hours.

As soon as you catch a cold the wise thing to do is to take Grove's Laxative Bromo Quinine. This famous tablet stops a cold quickly because it does the four things necessary. It opens the bowels. It kills the cold germs and fever in the system. It relieves the headache and grippy feeling. It tones the entire system and fortifies against further attack. That is the treatment a cold requires!

Grove's Laxative Bromo Quinine is effective, but harmless. Contains no narcotics and produces no bad after-effects. For years it has been the reliance of thousands in all cases of colds and grippe. Every drug store in America sells Grove's Laxative Bromo Quinine. Handy, pocket-size box, cellophane-wrapped. Get it today.

Police Assist In Hunt For Holdup Men On Saturday

Watch All Roads In Hope Of Seeing Car Of New Wilmington Holdup Men

Saturday night following the receipt of word of the shooting of Fred Williamson, general store proprietor at New Wilmington, in an effort to hold him up, the city police were very active in covering all avenues by which the holdup men might pass through this city. Due to the faulty description of the car in which the holdup men were supposed to be, which was first received, the police were handicapped for a time. The new police car and new machine gun were ready for use, had the bandit car been sighted and positively identified.

Copies Of Plans Received Here

Employes For City's Share Must Be Local Residents And Married

Copies of the plans for the widening of East Washington street between County Line and Ray streets and the paving of the unpaved portion thereof have been received by city engineers.

They were forwarded here by H. E. Kloss, district engineer, Pennsylvania highway department. Bids have been asked and will be opened October 27, and a contract let as soon thereafter as possible.

S. W. Treser, director of city improvements, said today that some local residents who are married will receive two days work each at a rate of 35 cents an hour. They will do the curb work which is a city project. A registration will be conducted, he added. However, the date of the registration and place has not been set.

He added that men who were employed on the Hamilton street, Long avenue and Beaver street resurfacing projects will not have to register. He said it is planned to give the other men first chance at the work and if insufficient help was secured men who had worked on the three projects then would be hired.

This decision, he said, had been reached due to the desire to spread the work around.

WE OFTEN WAIL

Most when we have been hurt least.
About the misfortunes we have never suffered.
Loudly when a quiet prayer would help more.
In the face of danger and thus increase it.
About our hurts in the presence of those who know what real suffering is.
About trifles while greatness stands and waits.
About God's neglect when our own neglect is the cause of trouble.

Don't let Anyone kid you —

He-men like 'em Mild

You might think that a two-fisted fellow like the steel jack in the picture would like his tobacco strong. Not at all.

He wants his cigarettes mild and that's why he picks Chesterfields.

Mildness doesn't mean a smoke that's weak or flat or insipid or anything like that. In fact it's just the reverse. Two-fisted fellows as well as anyone else—men and women—want a cigarette that's mild . . . one that satisfies—and that's Chesterfield.

We believe that every smoker is looking for a cigarette without any "bite" or bitterness, and a cigarette that has a pleasing taste—and that's Chesterfield.

Gov. Roosevelt Plans To Speak In Pittsburgh

On October 24 Governor Roosevelt Will Invade Pittsburgh For Speech

(International News Service)

PITTSBURGH, Oct. 10.—Believing he has a chance to swing Pennsylvania's presidential vote into his column next month, Gov. Franklin D. Roosevelt, Democratic nominee, will invade Pittsburgh October 24 to make a campaign address, Democratic headquarters said here today.

Where Roosevelt will speak here and other details about the meeting are undetermined. Partial confirmation of the local announcement came in dispatches from Albany listing Pittsburgh as a tentative stop on the New York Governor's second and final whirlwind campaign tour through the south and middle west.

School Children Injured In Crash

Have Narrow Escape From Serious Injury In Auto Collision On Highway

Only the alertness of two pupils from the Princeton school saved them from serious injury last week during a collision along the Butler road between Princeton and Rose Point, and has resulted in Principal D. E. Cole issuing a warning to parents, children, and motorists to use more caution on the highways near the school.

The two children just missed being struck by an auto during a collision last week. Sensing danger to themselves when the collision occurred, the children ran up the bank, and were just brushed by one of the cars as it left the highway.

Mr. Cole has cautioned the children attending his school to walk along the highway facing the oncoming traffic, so that they can see approaching cars ahead of them and step off the highway. Parents of the children arre also urged to impress this on their children.

The principal asks motorists to cooperate by driving carefully in the vicinity of his school between the hours of 2:30 and 4:30 in the afternoon as school is dismissed.

ROOSEVELT PLANS NEW CAMPAIGN TOUR

Tour Plans For Roosevelt Are Being Mapped

Governor Roosevelt Will Invade South, Border States And New York City

SPEECH IN BOSTON ON OCTOBER 31

(International News Service)

ALBANY, N. Y., Oct. 10.—Governor Franklin D. Roosevelt will wind up his campaign for the presidency with a "courtesy" trip into Dixie, a whirlwind drive through some of the border states and the middle west, a couple of speeches in New England and the final "smash" in Tammany's stronghold in New York City.

Final plans for the southern and middle western trip will be mapped tonight by the Governor at a conference with James A. Farley, national chairman.

Under tentative plans the Democratic nominee will leave New York a week from tomorrow stopping that night in Baltimore. On Tuesday October 18 he will stop at Raleigh, N. C., and then continue on to Atlanta.

Tour Mapped Out

The special train will sidetrack at Atlanta, and the Roosevelt party will motor 70 miles to Warm Springs where the Governor is expected to remain until Friday October 21.

If the tentative itinerary is carried out Roosevelt will be in St. Louis on October 22. On the following day he probably will make brief stops at Springfield, Ill., and Indianapolis, and on Monday, October 24, he plans to speak in Wheeling, W. Va., and possibly in Pittsburgh.

From Pittsburgh he will head back for Albany, with brief stops in Buffalo, Rochester and Syracuse. He hopes to be back at the executive mansion on the night of October 25.

Unless there is a last minute switch in the tentative plans, the Governor will deliver a major speech in Boston on Monday night, October 31. He may speak the following night in Providence, R. I., but intends to leave Connecticut to former governor Alfred E. Smith.. The "happy warrior" is expected to make his first stump speech for the Roosevelt-Garner ticket in the Nutmeg state.

NEW RACKET WORKED BY DENVER WOMAN

(International News Service)

DENVER, Col. Oct. 10.—It looked like Christmas, and a merry one at that, at the home of Mrs. Leonard A. Hallman. Three radios, a grand piano and a washing machine were delivered at her door in rapid succession. She had them returned to the dealers, and now police are looking for the real "buyer".

An unidentified woman, described as being well dressed and of pleasant, middle-aged appearance, police learned, called at various stores and shops and "purchased" the articles for delivery at the Hallman home. In each instance she gave checks for $10 as first payment on the article, and in each instance she also received a small amount of change.

Washington Is Next Opponent At Local Field

Washington High Football Team Will Play At Taggart Field Friday Night

NEW CASTLE LOOKS FOR TOUGH GAME

A tough assignment awaits the New Castle high football team this Friday night at Taggart Field at 8 o'clock. The assignment happens to be a tussle with Washington high school football team. The game was carded for Washington Saturday afternoon, but they wanted to play it here and so Ralph H. Gardner okayed the request.

Well, a football game is due. Washington to be sure looked anything but a winner in the first two games, but they have come into their own now. They defeated Monaca 18 to 0, and defeated Clairton, Saturday.

Washington Is Good.

This Washington team won the W. P. I. A. L. honors last year, and the only difference this year Coach "Hank" Day is over teaching them how at W. & J. and William "Bill" Cox is the new Washington high mentor. It is practically the same team.

It was just a little hard for the boys to get used to another system, after playing so long under the Day system, but once they get this Notre Dame shift down, they are going to be dangerous.

New Castle high team is showing steady improvement each game. Against Coraopolis high the boys ran themselves into a lather of sweat, with Johnny Uram putting on a miniature track meet all of his own, and with Freddy Lane running him a close second. Coach Bridenbaugh will give the boys their hardest work this week. That line looks better each game, but not near what Bridenbaugh thinks it should be for the bigger and tougher Washington, Altoona, Ellwood City, New Kensington and Turtle Creek games. If New Castle can get by Washington, well, there's New Kensington next in the Class AA competition.

Union A. C. Wins From Knox Avenue

Union A. C. defeated Knox A. C., 18 to 12, Saturday. Phillips made three touchdowns for Union. Eve and Morgan turned in the two touchdowns for the Knox A. C. Phillips ran 80 yards when he made the first of his three touchdowns and 50 for the second.

GIRLS' FLOOR RACE ON, WASHINGTON'S TEAMS SEEK TITLE

Girls' basketball, although it may seem early has been launched at the George Washington junior high school with Faculty Manager J. W. Anderson assisting Coach Dan Carroll, in charge of both boys' and girls' athletic activities this year.

It is hoped to have the girls' and boys' class tournaments over before the gridiron squad reports for varsity basketball workouts.

Last night the ninth grade girls' championship was determined when 9A1, 9A champs, laced the 9B2 team, 9B champs, to the tune of 23-6. The Misses Smith and Yankura starred. Eighth grade honors are to be determined next week.

BOND OF JURYMAN DECLARED FORFEITED

BUTLER, Pa., Oct. 10.—Upon representation by District Attorney Edgar H. Negley, the $1,500 bond of W. DeWitt McBride, of Prospect, signed by Joseph Ekis, of West Sunbury, was declared by Judge Thomas W. Watson forfeited. Ekis was given until the second Monday of December to find McBride.

McBride at the June term of court pleaded "no defense" to the charge that he had approached veniremen drawn for the trial of Mayor Charles H. Kline and Bertram L. Succop, of Pittsburgh.

Westminster Defeats California Teachers

Inauguration Day Game At Westminster Goes To Titans 13 To 0.

Ray Sweeney And Bob Arrowsmith Score Touchdowns; First Half Hard Fought

(Special To The News)

NEW WILMINGTON, Pa., Oct. 10.—California State Teachers college proved a stubborn foe for Coach John Lawther's Westminster college football team here Saturday, but the Titans rallied in the second half and won by a 13-0 score after the two teams had played on even terms thruout the first two quarters.

The game, a feature of the inauguration of Dr. R. F. Galbreath as president of the college, did not start until 4 o'clock. The first two quarters were 12 minutes each and the last two periods were 10 minutes each.

First Half Scoreless.

The first half resolved itself into a punting duel with neither team holding much of an advantage. Almost all the play was between the rival 30-yard lines, and neither team made much of a scoring threat. Most of the thrills of these opening periods came from fumbles on the part of both teams.

Patterson, California fullback, once punted out of bounds on the Titan two-yard line in the first quarter, but Sweeney immediately punted the ball down the field. The Teachers lost eight yards on three tries and Captain Hazelbaker of California punted out of bounds on the Titan 12.

From this point, Young, Staples, Scarbrough and Sweeney carried the ball down the field 29 yards. The Titans lost five for taking too much time, and Sweeney punted to the California 30 as the first period ended.

Teachers Threaten.

At the start of the second quarter, California advanced the ball eight yards before Patterson punted out of bounds on the Titan 22. But Westminster was guilty of clipping from behind on the play, so the ball was placed on the Titan 12 in Westminster's possession.

Arrowsmith and Scarbrough were able to make only 9½ yards in three tries and Scarbrough punted to midfield. California picked up four yards in three attempts, and Patterson punted to Siljander on the Titan 12, and Whitey carried it to the 16. Four more exchanges of punts gained little for either side.

With the ball in Westminster's possession on the Titan 47, Patterson intercepted Arrowsmith's pass and ran to the Titan 25. Three tries at the line netted two yards, and Moreno's pass to Bridge was knocked down. Staples and Arrowsmith gained three as the half ended.

Titans Score On Pass.

Patterson kicked off to Sweeney who carried the ball from the 15 to the 35. An exchange of punts gave Westminster the ball on the Titan 35. From here Sweeney, Scarbrough, Staples and Arrowsmith carried the ball to midfield and Arrowsmith tossed a pass from midfield to Sweeney on the 26. Sweeney raced the remaining yards for the score. Siljander's placement for the extra point was good.

A few minutes later, with the ball on the Titan 30, California was penalized 15. From the 45, Sweeney, Arrowsmith, Staples and Siljander advanced the ball 18 yards as the third period ended.

At the start of the fourth quarter Scarbrough, Arrowsmith, Staples and Sweeney carried the ball to the California 20. From here, Arrowsmith raced around end behind perfect interference for the score. Siljander's placement for extra point was low.

The Titans made nine first downs to three by California, completed two out of four passes to five out of 14 for the Teachers and were penalized 25 yards as compared with 35 for California.

Westminster fumbled five times during the game but recovered four of the fumbles, three for gains. California fumbled twice and recovered both times.

SOTUS MAKES GOOD ON BETHANY TEAM

James Sotus, former star of the New Castle high school team, is making good on the varsity team of Bethany college, according to reports received here. He is being tried out at half back, in which position, he is proving to be an important cog of the Bethany eleven.

RAY SWEENEY

Ray Sweeney, former Youngstown South grid star and quarterback at Westminster college, played a good game Saturday, scoring one of the two touchdowns and directing the team in fine manner. Sweeney is the lightest man on the Titan squad, but is a shifty ball carrier.

HERE AND THERE IN SPORTS' LAND

According to a report delivered to the writer today, the Slippery Rock creek is a blue color. This probably explains why two muscalunge were found dead near Elliott's bridge. For years pollution has been noticed in one of the most beautiful streams in the country and one which if pollution is stopped should swarm with game fish. Time and again the creek has been stocked. And time and again fish have been found dead. Fish wardens have travelled up and down the stream to investigate conditions. Reports have been sent to Harrisburg but pollution has not ceased. There have been some bass taken from the creek in recent years but not enough in comparison to the way reports say the creek has been stocked.

It is reported that the fish commission can do nothing and that it is a problem for the sanitary waters board to handle. Recently a sportsman gave us the foregoing information. To this he added: "Yes, it is up to the sanitary board but they meet seldom." Some people claim that when a heavy rain falls the water gets into the mines. This later seeps into the Slippery Rock. If pollution is allowed to continue it will not be very long until bathers will be afrain to swim in the creek. The legislature convenes in January. It may come to pass that the sportsmen will get busy and insist that laws with teeth be enacted to prevent pollution.

Billy Campbell, colored, 130 pounds is taking boxing lessons from Jimmie Dime...The veteran tutor says that during amateur bouts Billy has showed potentialities of making a fighter...Dime has about a dozen youngsters learning to hit, block and step. Henry Attell, middleweight, and Billy Joyce, lightweight, are his best bets at present...Joe Alexander reports that Frankie Lands has returned to the gloves...Several years ago he showed a lot of promise and is anxious to get going again...Billy Frengel, so an informant says, is willing to tackle Bearcat Wright any time a night in fistania is arranged ....George Chip, former middleweight champ, is angling for a boxing tutor's job at Hollywood, Cal.

Talking about Hollywood recalls that several boys known here got into the Bobbin' Films. Johnny Papke, lightweight, and brother to the former middleweight champion, Billy Papke, had his innings there. Babe Picato also showed, so we have been told. Kid Wagner, who fought several hard fights with George Chip appeared in numerous pictures. Bull Montana, who fought once or twice but who was famous as a wrestler, went big. He never fought or wrestled here but did wrestle in Youngstown. There is one club in Hollywood, it is reported, that has no tutor in boxing and if possible Jimmie Dime will land the job for Chip. He knows his punches and should he be successful it may come to pass that he, too, may get a chance in the pictures.

James J. Long, writing in the Sun-Telegraph carried an article concerning Ralph Gardner, faculty manager of athletics at New Castle high school. It refers to night football and injuries. Long's article says:

Writing to contend that the credit for introducing night football in this region belongs to New Castle high school, which he holds was the first institution in western Pennsylvania to play an outdoor athletic contest by artificial light, Ralph H. Gardner, faculty manager of athletics at that school, adds an interesting point which his observations have brought out in connection with floodlight games. He finds that players suffer fewer injuries than in the daylight contests and do not experience the same degree of exhaustion. "While night football has increased the attendance and given many persons employed in the daytime an opportunity of seeing the games which they would not have otherwise," Manager Gardner writes, "we have found that the greatest advantage to us lies in another direction, and it is two-fold.

Firstly, it is not an uncommon thing for an entire game to be played at night without any time being taken out on account of injuries to players. Secondly, the players, particularly those on high school teams, will come out of a night game with far less exhaustion than is the case in day games. This is particularly true of early season games, and we figure that the injuries and exhaustion resulting from such games when they are played in the daytime are due largely to the high temperature which commonly prevails at this season of the year in this climate."

Ryantown Wins In Title Game

Ryantown Team Wins Championship Of West Side, Top West Side Tigers

Ryantown baseball team won the championship of the West Side Saturday afternoon at the Ryantown field by topping the West Side Tigers, 4 to 2, in a finely played game. The seventh and final game was the cleanest fielding game of the entire series.

"Chuck" Davies, the Ryantown pitcher, deserves credit for the winning of the series by pitching an eight-hit game, and fanning two men. He won three of the four games won by his team. Gunnett won one game for Ryantown and lost one. Davies was defeated twice. Some idea of the fast playing of the series may be gained from the fact that 13 double plays were completed in the seven games.

Maher was the hitting star of the final game, getting a pair of doubles, while James also had a double. Houston was on the mound for the Tigers and pitched a nice game, allowing only eight hits.

This game ended the baseball season for New Castle and vicinity. Quite nice crowds witnessed the games.

Score by innings:

		R.	H.	E.
Ryantown	000 000 202—	4	8	1
Tigers	001 100 000—	2	8	0

Batteries: Ryantown, Davies and Severa. West Side Tigers, Houston and McCormick. Umpires: Bishop and Smith.

WANT GRID GAMES

Van Dykes would like to arrange football games. Managers should communicate with Angelo Van Dyke, Hamilton street.

Some Upsets In Games Saturday; New Castle Boys On Many Teams

Pitt defeated Duquesne 33 to 0, Carnegie Tech won from Western Reserve 19 to 0, Waynesburg upset Penn State 7 to 6, Westminster beat California Teachers 13 to 0, Grove City and Slippery Rock Teachers played to a scoreless tie, Edinboro turned back Allegheny 7 to 0 and Wesleyan beat Bethany 43 to 6 in Saturday grid games.

Captain Paul Reider, who was injured some time ago, did not participate in the Pitt-Dukes clash but Nick DeCarbo and Benny Ciccone, two New Castle boys, played left guard and center respectively for the beaten Dukes. Their work stood out prominently. Other local boys got into games in this district.

Ostrosky did not start at end for Carnegie Tech but was injected into the game later. Thomas played quarterback and Alexander halfback for Grove City in the clash with Slippery Rock, and Burry played right guard for the Titans against California Teachers.

Hold Crimson Scoreless.

Slippery Rock State Teachers pluckily battled Grove City college to a scoreless tie at Grove City. The green and white played defensively and waged an especially strong defensive game when Grove City threatened to score in the third period.

Forward passes and a line attack directed at the tackles in the third quarter put the ball on Slippery Rock's four-yard line. Grove City could not muster enough offense to put it over the goal line and lost on downs.

The reached the 10-yard stripe in the final quarter. The nearest attempt to a score came in the third period when a touchback was registered, Freed of Slippery Rock being nailed back of the line when he picked up a bounding punt.

Allegheny Loses, 7-0.

A series of forward passes in the fourth period ended in a touchdown and a point from kick which gave Edinboro Teachers a triumph over Allegheny 7 to 0 at Meadville. Holland made the touchdown and Trostmiller kicked the point.

Ohio School Football Team Scores In Second And Third Periods

BESSEMER SCORES IN FOURTH QUARTER

(Special To The News)

SCIENCEVILLE, O., Oct. 10.—Coach "Moot" Heckman's Scienceville high gridders gained their first victory of the season at the expense of Bessemer high Saturday, 14 to 7. Scienceville took the ball over for touchdowns in the second and third quarters.

Scienceville uncorked some brilliant runs and outplayed Coach Fredericks' gridders. The latters' goal was threatened many times but in all except two critical times Bessemer staved off touchdowns.

Bessemer's backfield did not click as good as in former games but a forward pass which proved good for 35 yards brought Bessemer a touchdown in the fourth period. Plevnic heaved a pass to Marshall, who scored, and another pass brought an extra point.

Scienceville had possession of the ball in Bessemer territory for the most part of the first quarter. In the second period, Green hurled a pass to Hitter which was good for 25 yards. The ball was down on the three-yard line.

Noble plunged the ball over and Butler went around right end for the extra point. Their second touchdown came following an exchange of punts in the third quarter. After drawing a 25-yard penalty for clipping the ball was down on Bessemer's 45-yard line.

Butler Runs 40 Yards.

A line play got Scienceville five yards and on an end run Butler went 40 yards for a touchdown and Noble plunged over for the extra point which ran the score to 14 to 0. Bessemer rallied in the fourth period after getting a punt on Scienceville's 35-yard line.

On the first down Plevnic heaved a beautiful pass to Marshall who was waiting for it on the goal line. He caught it and stepped across the line. The extra point was collected by a pass, Plevnic to Marshall.

Scienceville came back strong after intercepting a forward thrown by Plevnic. The ball was caught on Bessemer's 10-yard line. Butler made nine yards but was forced out of bounds and the whistle sounded, ending the game.

Butler, Scienceville's colored halfback, was the outstanding player for the winners and throughout the game Green and Butler kicked. Bessemer played defensively except in the first part of the fourth when the heaves netted their only scores.

The lineup:

Opponents Show Power Saturday

Washington High Defeats Clairton, Will Bring Strong Team To New Castle

There are no "set-ups" on the New Castle high school football program for the rest of the season, judging by the fine performances turned in by the Washington high team, New Kensington, Turtle Creek, Youngstown South and Altoona, in games played Saturday.

This Washington team that New Castle is called upon to face Friday night under the lights at Taggart field up and defeated Clairton 7 to 6 in a finely played game at Washington. The "Little Presidents" showed real strength in downing Clairton for their first class AA triumph. A real game will no doubt be the dish for Friday night here.

New Kensington showed power by stopping a brilliant Wilkinsburg team, 13 to 6, in a class AA game at the New Kensington field. Altoona defeated Williamsport, 14 to 6, and showed power.

Youngstown South blasted the hopes of Chaney high in Youngstown for any title honors this year by taking a 14 to 0 verdict. Turtle Creek won a class AA victory by upsetting Norwin high, 14 to 7.

Ellwood City was on the losing end at Beaver Falls, 20 to 7, but the Benedict coached team showed better attack than in their previous games.

Yes, sir, New Castle high has a long, tough row to hoe before the curtain falls on Thanksgiving Day.

Truly, corsetiers are predicting a return to the "wasp" waist. They say we soon will be proud of full bosom, decided hip curves and tiny waists. They promise, however, that the old discomfiture associated with this type of figure will be missing.

Further Rise In Steel Operations Causes Better Tone

OPENING PRICES GENERALLY HIGHER

(International News Service)

NEW YORK, Oct. 10.—The stock market showed an improved tone today, aided by a further rise in steel operations for the week and hope of an upturn in U. S. Steel's unfilled tonnage.

Opening prices were generally higher with U. S. Steel, American Telephone and Case Threshing rising more than a point. The gains were pared by scattered selling in the first hour. Trading was quiet.

Grain prices continued to sag, led by wheat, and this kept the market in check with the main body of stocks marking time awaiting developments.

Rail stocks tended higher but there were a few exceptions like N. Y. Central and Delaware & Hudson. The better action of the carrier shares, the weak spot in last week's decline, reflected the unexpectedly big gain in Saturday's car loading figures.

Utilities were unsettled by pressure on the Electric Bond & Share issues. Oils did little while coppers were irregular. The auto list was dull with the exception of Auburn, which ruled about a point higher.

Bonds were mixed and commodities irregular. Cotton improved but was able to recover very little of Saturday's break of more than $2 a bale.

Sentiment was aided by a rally in the dollar against European currencies.

Count Alessandro Volta, an Italian physicist, was the inventor of the voltaic battery.

Black is a favorite in all types of frocks for fall.

Ellwood Bows To Beaver Falls Hi

Offensive Drive In First Quarter Gives Valley Team 20-7 Victory

WINNERS OUTPLAYED IN SECOND HALF

Wasses, Marconda, Stoops, Star For Beaver Falls; Welsh For Ellwood

ELLWOOD CITY, Oct. 10.—An early offensive drive in the first quarter proved enough to pull the game out of the fire for Beaver Falls High School when they set back Ellwood High by a 20-7 count Saturday afternoon at the winners home field.

For the sake of discipline Coaches Benedict and Ferrare kept Vogt, star varsity tackle out of the starting line-up. Barnes, varsity left end did not start at his customary position. This had an effect in Beaver Falls' overwhelming victory.

Beaver Falls Strong

Immediately after Ellwood had surrendered the ball by punting on the fourth down following the kick-off the Tigers started an offensive drive that netted them their first touchdown. Through a series of off-tackles plays and line plunges the home team soon got within scoring distance and plunged it over for the count. Marconda's placement kick for the extra point was blocked by the whole Ellwood team.

Beaver Fall's second touchdown was not long in following the first. It was acquired by the same tactics. After this showing Coach Benedict sent in Vogt and Barnes for Savor and Johnson at left tackle and end respectively. From this moment on the game was played on nearer even terms.

Ellwood Holds

Coach Heckathorne's machine threatened to score again just before the half ended, but the blue and white's strengthened line held on the one yard line and took the ball on downs as the period came to a close. This sudden rally gladdened the hearts of many local sports followers.

It was a different Ellwood High team that took the field of battle in the third quarter. It was the Benedict men that held the spot light until the close of the game this time.

The Benedict men took the initiative this time and began to find weak spots more regularly in the Tiger's forward wall.

Welsh Runs 30 Yards

The huge crowd was on its feet late in the third quarter when Captain Joe Welsh Ellwood's sensational right end scooped up a punted ball late in the third quarter and outran the whole Beaver Falls team for a touchdown, a distance of 30 yards. The incident leading up to this was humorous. Wasses was forced to punt following a five yard penalty. He got off a bad kick which upon hitting the ground rebounded backwards. Members of both teams had the ball completely surrounded in Beaver Fall's own territory, each waiting for the other to touch it. Captain Welsh who is one of the district's outstanding sprinters walked up to the pigskin, scooped it up and dashed for the side lines from where he ran 30 yards unmolested for the touchdown. Coach Benedict then sent in Bob Johnson and his educated toe to kick the extra point from placement.

Ellwood was desperate in the final stanza and threatened twice to score, but lacked that necessary punch. Both teams battled back and forth to get nowhere. The game was in its last two minutes when the Heckathorne men completed two successive passes that resulted in another touchdown. Marconda dropped kick the extra point. Ellwood received the kickoff and in two plays had negotiated a first down when the final whistle blew.

Ellwood Defensive Team

The final score of the game 20-7 really does not indicate that Ellwood is necessarily weak on the defense. In contrary they can hold their own in this department with any eleven in the valley. With the absence of Vogt and Barnes at their customary positions the Benedict men were unable to click. They showed their defensive ability when these two players were installed in the game. Statistics of the second half show that Ellwood can hold their own. They gained 88 yards through scrimmage to 28 for Beaver Falls in the second half. Ellwood also made 5 first downs to two for the home team. The winner's first period drive give them a better total in both events. Ellwood was further handicapped by the loss of Milton Luxenberg early in the game. He injured his shoulder on the second play and was taken out by Coach Benedict.

The fine work of Captain Welsh, Red Vogt, Barnes, and Navolio was outstanding throughout the game. These linemen were continually breaking through and making tackles. Zobczak and Vandrello performed best in the Ellwood backfield. The brilliant playing of Wasses in the Beaver Falls backfield held the eyes of local fans. This man was responsible for two of the scores. Marconda also played fine here. The playinng of Captain Brununsky, Stoops, and Zingarro was outstanding in the line.

The summary:

At the time of the fire, Mr. and Mrs. Kiesling were visiting relatives at Beaver. The blaze was discovered by neighbors who immediately called the local fire department and then removed the furniture from the home to nearby grounds. LONDON, Oct. 10.— "Both your wives have behaved admirably."

This was the comment made by a judge here when he passed a two-days' imprisonment on a 38-year-old clerk for bigamy.

During the war the clerk met a Belgian refugee and married her.

Unfortunately he already had a wife in England, who turned up a little later.

When the three met, they sat quietly down to a cup of tea, and discussed the situation. The first wife agreed to let her husband remain with wife No. 2, provided he supported wife No. 1 and her children.

Degree Given To Prof. Shott

Thirty Years Service On Westminster College, Faculty Is Recognized

DR. J. A. SHOTT

NEW WILMINGTON, Pa., Oct. 10.—A feature of the inauguration of Dr. Robert F. Galbreath as the eighth president of Westminster College Saturday afternoon was the presentation of the honorary degree of doctor of pedagogy to Professor J. A. Shott, head of the department of psychology and education, and director of teacher training at Westminster.

Dr. J. A. Swindler, registrar, presented Prof. Shott to President Galbreath for the degree, stating that the board of trustees had, in recognition of his service, achievements and contributions to education recommended that he be given the degree.

The presentation of the degree to him recognizes 30 years of service to Westminster and to the hundreds of alumni who hold responsible teaching positions throughout the country.

ARAB SHOCKED BY POLICE ORDER TO GET INTO TUB

(International News Service)

ARIS, Oct. 10.— A certain Paris police station recently resembled certain households having small boys on a Saturday night.

Mahmoudi Mahmoud ben Mostapha, an Arab arrested on several charges, had been ordered to take a bath. A bath! he stoutly refused to hear of one. Up to the present time he has lead a happy life without ever going near a bathtub and he had no intentions of beginning now.

The police authories assured him that every prisoner begins his new life that way and that the experience would not be particularly unpleasant.

"No," maintained the Arab. "Habit is everything in life and if I were to begin to wash myself now I would be obliged to keep it up. I do not intend to start."

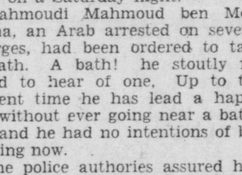

Two officers and several warders tried to put him into the tub, but to no avail. Tear gas was then resorted to, but it produced little effect since the windows were open. Finally, the police, protected by gas masks, overpowered the man. The bath question was then postponed to a later day.

John Wiclif, a noted English reformer, was often styled the Morning Star of the Reformation.

Weber's Law, in psychology, is the formula expressing the relation of sensation to intensity of stimulus.

Some News, Some Views, But Mostly Just Observations Of Interesting Things Around New Castle.

The unusual number of mushrooms this season has started a lot of people out trying to find the delicacies and not all of them are sure they are getting mushrooms. Billy Williams claims to have the only certain rule to tell whether or not its a mushroom.

A stranger in conversation with him a few nights ago asked him if he would mind giving him the rule and this is it, "pick it and eat it, if it's a mushroom you wont get sick, if it's a toadstool you will."

In past years golf has been played about six months a year, with now and then some golf goof playing in the snowy months. Bill Fleming has an idea that there are enough golf addicts to form a Twelve Months Club and intends starting it. To belong you have to play at least once in every month in the year.

Imagine going out on Christmas morning and digging out enough snow to give you a place to tee your ball. Or trying to skate up that six hundred yard hole out there.

Puss Morgan was a visitor here recently. Or did you know Puss Morgan. He formerly lived down on the south Side, "yeahs and yeahs ago" when Jack Rowan was just coming along as a baseball pitcher and the voting precinct for the Fifth ward was in a livery stable on Beaver street.

It has been many years since he was back in New Castle, but he asked about the old Dirty Dozen and the rest of the South Siders. Rowan hasn't been here for many years. After pitching big league baseball he was in Dayton, O., for a time and when his pitching days were over he stayed there and is a mail carrier.

As boys, Henry Dysart and him were mixed up in considerable skullduggery, that today would be good for ten days in the cooler. But in those days it was just good clean fun.

CROWDS FLOCK TO TABERNACLE

his sweet soprano voice rang out in the appealing song "Come Home".

Rev. Clifford S. Joshua, pastor of the Croton Methodist church offered the evening prayer and Rev. R. J. Fredericks of the Calvary Presbyterian church appealed to the Christian people to bring others with them who have not yet accepted Christ, so that this fourth week of the meetings would bring forth the results desired from such services.

Evening Sermon

Dr. Philpott announced that he would preach this evening on "The Sin which cannot be forgiven" and Tuesday evening he would speak on "The Transformed Lad" and at this service he would have one who had been converted at last week's services speak of his conversion.

His sermon Sunday evening dealt with "The Good Shepherd" and for the scripture lesson he took part of the tenth chapter of John, and took part of verse 24 as his text: "How long dost thou make us to doubt? If thou be the Christ, tell us plainly". He said this gospel was truly inspired and if any man comes to the gospel with the desire to know the truth he can find it in this book of John, praying to God to enlighten him, and then when he finds that which satisfies him, he will give it to others.

He said the claims made for Jesus in this gospel showed his deity, with all his symbols pointing to the prophesies spoken in the Old Testament, all leading up to the conviction that Christ is the only mediator between man and God and man can only be saved through the crucifixion of our Lord.

He pointed out the the "I Am" of the old testament was the Christ, who said: "I am the light, the way and the life" bringing out that the good shepherd is Christ and he looks after his sheep, who are the people of the world.

He closed his sermon with some stories of personal experiences in his years of ministry and then appealed to the audience to make themselves right with God, with the result that many entered the prayer room for this purpose.

Afternoon Meeting

The mass meeting in the afternoon drew thousands to the tabernacle and Dr. Philpott's sermon was taken from the book of Exodus, his theme being 'Compromising" and he spoke on the four distinct compromises Pharoah offered to Moses and his rejection of each and every one of them, saying the same was true in the world today, compromises were offered to men on all sides and the true Christian and followers of Christ reject the compromises as they come up, following the straight path which leads to eternal life.

Much good has come to the persons of the city, who have expressed their intention of leaving all compromising behind and following the path of the Christian.

The meeting will continue each evening this week at 7:30, with cottage prayer services in the homes of the city on Tuesday and Thursday mornings from 10 to 10:30.

At the Sunday evening service Dr. Philpott expressed the deepest gratitude to the New Castle News for the hearty co-operation the party has received from it.

MONEY UNNECESSARY IN NORTH CAROLINA

(International News Service)

MARION, N. C., Oct. 10.— Three residents of Marion discovered money isn't necessary, after all.

T. L. Klutz, an insurance agent, owed H. G. Washburn $15. W. G. Biggerstaff, farmer, wanted a life insurance policy but lacked cash. Washburn needed feed for his livestock.

So Klutz sold Biggerstaff the policy and took a $15 I. O. U. in payment. The insurance agent passed the note on to Washburn, settling his debt. Washburn returned it to Biggerstaff in payment of $15 worth of corn for his livestock.

SUPERINTENDENT MAKES INDIANS WORK FOR LIVING

(International News Service)

MUSKOGEE, Okla.—Efforts to aid indigent Indians in helping themselves have been successful, A. M. Landman, superintendent of the Indian service has reported.

When he took office in January 1931, Landman found most of the attention focused on the wealthy Indians while those in financial straights often were in want for the bare necessities of life. The wealthy Indians constituted only 10 percent of the total, he ascertained in a survey.

In the past year, Landman has supervised the distribution of army supplies valued a $47,000, and six carloads of flour donated by the Red Cross. Fruit jars and seed also have been furnished. Seeds also have been furnished.

Landman said the relief had been planned in such a way as to make it necessary for the Indians to contribute their work so as to be able to realize the fruits of the relief contributions.

Forexample, the fruit jars and seeds are given instead of periodic rations. Thus the Indians must grow the vegetables and then can them in order to have the food in the winter months.

John Constable, an English landcape painter, was the founder of modern landscape art.

Giulio Clovio was the most eminent Italian illuminator of the High Renaissance.
